Two Hundred Mothers and Children Taken to Chesapeake Beach.

Two hundred children and their mothers held a picnic today at Chesapeake Beach as the guests of the summer outings committee of the Associated Charimorning in special cars, which were furnished free by the Chesapeake Beach

On arrival at the beach the children were "turned loose," and spent the day themselves any way they pleased. The cars of the scenic railway and the merry-go-rounds were crowded all day, as were the various other amusements. Eating both by the children and their mothers was one of the principal events of the day, and the food, including furnished by the beach cafes, disappeared in great quantities. T. A.
